Overview

Embark on an extraordinary 9N/10D journey through Srinagar –Ladakh -Manali; a region celebrated for its stunning landscapes, vibrant culture, and serene monasteries.

The journey from Srinagar to Manali via Leh, Kargil, Hanle, and Tso Moriri is an epic odyssey through the Himalayas, spanning approximately 1,000 kilometers of diverse landscapes and cultural experiences. Starting from Srinagar, the route traverses through the breathtaking Zoji La into Ladakh, where ancient monasteries and traditional villages dot the rugged terrain. Kargil, known for its historical significance, offers a glimpse into the region's past amid stunning mountain vistas.

Explore the bustling markets, ancient palaces, and majestic monasteries at Leh. Journey to the remote Nubra Valley, visit the Diskit monastery overlooking the Shyok river and witness the sand dunes of Hunder. Visit Turtuk, the last village between India and Pakistan. Marvel at the pristine, high-altitude lakes of Pangong. Traverse some of the highest motorable passes in the world. Encounter unique wildlife, and immerse yourself in the rich traditions and warm hospitality of Ladakh.

Continuing eastward, the journey unfolds through the remote landscapes of Hanle, and Tso Moriri, provides a serene pause before heading south towards Manali. This journey epitomizes adventure and exploration, revealing the raw beauty and cultural richness of the Indian Himalayas at every turn.
